INTRODUCING NEW TIMELESS STORAGE FURNITURE: RIB SIDEBOARD & DRESSER

Normann Copenhagen unveils its latest additions to the equally aesthetic and utilitarian Rib collection: Rib Sideboard Low and Rib Dresser. Crafted with meticulous attention to detail and designed by the design brand's Head of Design, Simon Legald, these two new additions epitomize timeless elegance and functional convenience.

Characterized by an inherently Scandinavian design ethos, the Rib collection is inspired by the architectural charm of Nordic summerhouses from the 1960's, renowned for their picturesque wooden facades adorned with vertical wooden slats. Drawing from this Scandinavian heritage, the collection features trapeze-shaped wooden panels that pay homage to this architectural tradition, infusing the design with character and timeless appeal.

Expanding upon the existing cabinet and sideboard assortment, the Rib collection now introduces a lower sideboard alongside a dresser with four drawers, catering to an increased diversity of usage scenarios and settings.

Available in Oak or Soft Black finishes, each piece is crafted using a high-quality blend of lacquered oak veneer and solid oak, ensuring not only durability, but also a minimalistic and natural aesthetic. Conclusively, the Rib collection presents a versatile and timeless addition to any residential or commercial environment.
